Academic fund-raising activities

Oxford team leader, MACROHIST, an Initial Training Network funded under FP7, due to begin in 2013.

Awarded ERC Advanced Investigator Grant, for TRADEDEPRESSION: Trade and the Great Depression in a Long Run Perspective (Grant Agreement No. 249546). The project will run from 2010 to 2015. The award is worth €1.4 million.

Senior Investigator, "Globalization and Growth: Lessons from British Trade Statistics", NSF Award SES- 0851158 (with David Jacks, Simon Fraser, and Alan M. Taylor, UC Davis). The project will collect and analyze English (and later British) trade data for the 18th and 19th centuries.

Co-ordinator (with Stephen Broadberry) of Collaborative Research Project HI-POD: Historical Patterns of Development and Underdevelopment: Origins and Persistence of the Great Divergence (Proposal 225342). The project ran from 2008 to 2012, and the requested EU contribution was €1.34 million.

Co-ordinator (with Stephen Broadberry) of Research Training Network Proposal FP6-512439, Unifying the European Experience: Historical Lessons of Pan-European Development. The proposal was made on behalf of the Economic History Initiative at the CEPR. The grant was for over €1.7 million. The RTN's aim was to promote comparative and pan-European economic history, as well as 'presentist' economic history which speaks to today's academic and policy debates.

Co-ordinator of the successful TCD PRTLTI application to the HEA on behalf of the Institute for International Integration Studies. The PRTLTI grant was worth €8.8 million.

Team leader in successful Research Training Network Proposal on Trade, Industrialization and Development, co-ordinated by London School of Economics.
